This is a selection of websites we would recommend you visit if your children use the internet .

They provide comprehensive advice on staying safe online.

You can find links to all these sites on our website, www.ehps.co.uk

UK government website

<http://www.direct.gov.uk/en/Parents/Yourchildshealthandsafety/Internetsafety/index.htm>

A guide for parents about potential dangers their children can face when using the internet. Plus advice on safety and what can be done to help counter these hazards

Zip It, Block It, Flag It

<http://clickcleverclicksafe.direct.gov.uk/index.html>

A DirectGov Website

The code highlights three things that parents can encourage their children to do:

- Zip It - get your children to keep their passwords private
- Block It - make sure your children know how to block people that upset them
- Flag It - ask your kids regularly if they have seen or done anything online that has upset them

The new 'Click Clever, Click Safe' campaign aims to provide parents with practical, simple and easy to remember tips so they can help their children keep themselves safe.

Child Exploitation and Online Protection Centre

<http://www.ceop.police.uk/>

The Child Exploitation and Online Protection (CEOP) Centre is dedicated to eradicating the sexual abuse of children. That means we are part of UK policing and very much about tracking and bringing offenders to account either directly or in partnership with local and international forces.

CEOP's thinkuknow website

<http://www.thinkuknow.co.uk/>

CEOP say, "We've made this website to help you go on the internet in a safe way and know who to talk to if you are worried."
